

Guest house Burgbühler Guesthouse

Lenk im Simmental, Bernese Oberland, Switzerland, 1000m

24 beds, from CHF 49.00

Welcome to the Burgbühler Guesthouse Your cosy home from home in a prime location in the Simmental Are you looking for charming, cosy accommodation surrounded by nature? Our Burgbühler Guesthouse offers eight lovingly furnished rooms, a relaxed atmosphere and a fantastic view - ideal for couples, families, friends or small groups. Whether you just need a cosy room or would like the whole first and second floor to yourself - both are possible with us Central, quiet location with a view Our house is quietly situated on a slope with a view of the valley - and yet you can reach the village centre with restaurants, cafés and shopping facilities in just a few minutes on foot. Hiking trails, nature experiences and places of interest start practically on the doorstep. Rooms with character and comfort Our eight guest rooms are spread over the first and first floors and are furnished with lots of wood, attention to detail and alpine charm. Ideal for families Families are also in good hands with us. The child-friendly first floor with play corner is a must. We are happy to provide on request: Baby cot, bed barrier, changing table, high chairs There is a balcony on both sides of the house - one of which is designated as a smoking area. Two of the four-bed rooms also have a private balcony with a marvellous view. Shared kitchen & breakfast facilities The new and modern, well-equipped guest kitchen invites you to cook and linger. We are happy to serve you breakfast with regional specialities in the cosy dining area next to the kitchen. Your host family We - your host family of five - live on the ground floor and are always there for you. With a lot of heart and openness, we make sure that you feel completely at home with us. And don't worry: we're not sensitive to noise - if it gets a little late or more cheerful in the evening, that's perfectly fine with us.
