

Hotel Scuol Palace

Scuol, Engadin, Switzerland, 1580m
280 beds, from CHF 130.00

The Scuol Palace was opened on 26 July 1864 as the Tarasp Kurhaus and was developed in stages into a unique architectural ensemble. Today, as the entire Nairs ensemble, it is classified as a "cultural asset of national importance" (A-list). On 26 December 2023, the hotel was reopened as the Scuol Palace spa and cultural centre. The Scuol Palace is thus returning to its origins - but with a new interpretation: Spa tourism, which went out of fashion in the 1960s, is now returning as a megatrend of the 21st century - wellness and health. And as health owes much to pleasure, the Scuol Palace now offers cultural events almost all year round. The hotel has a beautiful park garden bordering the River Inn and is nestled in the middle of a fairytale landscape of forests, mountains and springs. Rooms from the past inspire reinterpretation and provide space for all kinds of possibilities. The house is ideal for: Families, schools, friends, weddings, seminars / events of all kinds.
