

Lodge Albergue de Graus

Graus, Aragon, Spain, 459m

120 beds, from EUR 20.00

The village of Graus is a magnificent gateway to the Pyrenees. There are varied landscapes to discover in all directions. The Esera and Isabena rivers meet in Graus and flow into the large reservoir at the foothills of the Turbón mountain. Mountain hiking, climbing, canyoning, rafting, cycling and swimming are just some of the activities that are possible in the immediate vicinity. The nearby Posets-Maladeta and Guara Natural Parks and the Ordesa National Park (the oldest national park in Spain) and Monte Perdido offer pleasant walks and excursions of great scenic interest. The hostel is about 1 km from the town centre and is within easy walking distance. Graus has shops, cafés and restaurants to suit all tastes. The accommodation consists of two buildings: a long building with 2 wings which contains the dormitories and a second one, 3 minutes' walk away, where the kitchen, dining room, lounges and terrace/garden are located. Between the buildings is the local comprehensive school and in the summer months you can use the school's gym and playground. The house is ideal for: Clubs, leisure activities, schools, seminars.
