

Group accommodation Louverain

Geneveys sur coffrane, Western CH, Switzerland, 1000m

74 beds, from CHF 30.00

The Louverain meets the most diverse requirements. Built in 1968 by the famous architect André Gaillard, the building was renovated in 2013. It has special artistic features in terms of its architecture and blends seamlessly into the magnificent landscape at the foot of Mont-Racine at 1000 m above sea level. The Louverain is situated on the edge of the forest, where you will find the silence you are looking for; it offers you a panoramic view of the lake and the Alps. The house is situated mostly above the fog line - with optimal sunshine . The house is ideal for: seminars, company events, courses, music camps, children's camps, weddings
